To the DAILY GAZETTEER.

1 R.

It is pleasantly observed by Mr. Bickerstaff, of facetious Memory, in his 88th Spectator, 'That it was (in his Times) a common Humour among the Retinue of People of Quality, to assume in a humorous Way, the Names and Titles of those whose Liveries they wore; and during the Session of Parliament, to hold mock Assemblies of their own, in Imitation, or rather in Derision of the supream Authority of the Nation. I have it from very good Hands, that the Divisions in the Lower House of this illegal Convention, have lately increased to an unaccountable Height, inasmuch, that the Patriot or Country Party, have left the House, and formed a distinct Assembly, or Antiparliament of their own, by the Name of the Craftsman's Parliament, of which my Landress's Husband is the Speaker, who hath been so complaisant as to favour me with their Votes, some of which I have thought worth your Perusal, and am,

Sir, your humble Servant,

WM. PRYNN.

Wm. Whittle, Speaker.

Since my last came in two Mails from France, and one from Flanders.

THE King Don Carlos, who has already a Navy Royal, consisting of two Men of War, six Gallies, and four Galliot, has issued Money for building four Men of War more; and besides the eight Walloon Battalions, which the King of Spain gave him before, he has made him a Present of four more Battalions of Walloon Guards.

The Duke de Montemar has ordered the necessary Preparations for evacuating Tuscany, and only waits for the Arrival of the Spanish Men of War, to take on board all the Spanish Infantry in that Dutchy, except 7000 Men, which he has Orders to leave behind, to garison the four Frontier Places in Tuscany, which are yielded by the late Treaty to King Carlos. The said General has likewise sent Orders to Genoa to prepare Forage there for the Cavalry that he is to send to Spain by the Way of France.

Mean time the French posted upon the River Minicio are returned to the Milanese, and 'tis expected, that the first Column of those Troops will repass the Mountains the Beginning of next Month for France, and that they will quickly be followed by the rest, whose Stay in Italy is no longer necessary, now that the principal Points in Dispute are regulated.

The Baron de Honstein is arrived at Paris from the Duke of Lorain, to notify his Marriage to the King.

His Majesty has conferred the Royal and Military Order of St. Lewis on a great Number of his Officers, to reward their Zeal for his Service; and upon Advice from Vienna, that M. du Theil has put a final End to all the Disputes relating to the immediate Cession of the Dutchy of Lorain, he has given Leave to the Officers of his Army to sell their Equipages, the Camp which was talked of being not to be formed this Year, and King Stanislaus being soon expected from Konigsberg, to come and take Possession of the Dutchy of Lorain.

The King has appointed six eminent Painters to draw as many Pictures representing the Chace of the Leopard, the Tyger, the Lyon, the Bear, the Elephant, and a Chinese Hunting, which Pictures are designed for some Apartments in the Palace of Versailles.

The Duke de Brissac has taken his Seat in the Parliament of Paris, as a Peer of France.

The Duke de Maine has resigned his Regiment of Carabineers, which, 'tis thought, will be given to the Count de Clermon, or the Prince of Conti.

The Marquis de Flavacour, Colonel of Horse, an only Son, and but 28 Years of Age, passing in a Coach 'tother Day thro' the Suburb St. Germain, the Horses took a sudden Start, and ran full Speed, by which Means the fore Glas was broke, and a Piece of it penetrated into his Heart, so that he died on the Spot.

The French Letters add, that a labouring Man in the Village of Carbonieres in the Province of Quercy, whose Name was Durand Estival, died there lately, in the 127th Year of his Age, being born Dec. 26, 1609.

They write from Hanover, that there are extraordinary Rejoicings, upon positive Advice from London, that the Impediments which retarded the Marriage between his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales and the Princess of Saxe-Gotha are intirely removed; that fresh Orders are thereupon issued to fit up the Apartments of the Palace for that Princess, who is speedily expected there; that her Journey from thence to London is fixed for the 19th of April; and that the Nuptials are to be celebrated in May. — They add, that so much Snow has lately fallen in the Mountains of Hartz, where the King's Silver Mines are, that a Stop is not only put to the Workmen for the present, but that it will cost a great deal of Labour to them.

Dublin, Feb. 28.

His Majesty's most gracious Answer to the Address of the Hon. House of Commons, in relation to the Outlawries of Persons attainted for Treason, in the Rebellions of 1641 and 1688.

GEORGE R.

HIS Majesty thanks the House of Commons, for their loyal and dutiful Address. As his Majesty is very sensible, that it is of the greatest Importance to the Welfare of his Kingdom of Ireland, that the Rights and Possessions of his Protestant Subjects there, should be secured to them in the most effectual Manner, they may always depend upon his Majesty's Readiness to do every Thing that shall contribute thereto, and that his Majesty will always discourage any Application or Attempt that may be made for the Reversal of Outlawries of Persons attainted for the Rebellions of 1641 and 1688, in any Case that may affect the Interest or Property of any of his Protestant Subjects there.

To this Answer the Commons returned the following Address of Thanks.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty, the humble Address of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Maſteſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, think ourſelves obliged, with the utmoſt Gratitude, to acknowledge the tender Concern your Maſteſty has always ſhewn for the Welfare of this Kingdom, thro' the whole Courſe of your Reign;
and, in a particular Manner, at this Time, to return your Maſteſty our moſt ſincere and unfeigned Thanks for your moſt gracious Answer to our Address, in which we humbly implored your Royal Favour and Protection againſt the Deſigns of the Perſons outlaw'd for the Rebellions of 1641 and 1688, and their Deſcendants, who ſhould attempt to diſturb your Maſteſty's Proteſtant Subjects in the Enjoyment of the Eſtates forfeited in thoſe Rebellions, which they had purchaſed under the Sanction of ſeveral Acts of Parliament in both Kingdoms.

We are truly ſenſible, that your Maſteſty has nothing more at Heart than the Preſervation of the Rights, Liberties, and Properties of your People, and do, with the utmoſt Humility, beg Leave to expreſs our grateful Senſe of the Aſſurances you have been graciously pleaſed to give us, that we may always depend on your Maſteſty's Readineſs to do every thing that ſhall contribute to ſecure, in the moſt eſſectual Manner, the Rights and Poſſeſſions of your Maſteſty's Proteſtant Subjects, and that your Maſteſty will always diſcourage any Application or Attempt that may be made for the Reſeal of Outlawries of Perſons attainted for the Rebellions of 1641 and 1688, in any Caſe that may affect the Intereſt or Property of your Maſteſty's Proteſtant Subjects here;
and to aſſure your Maſteſty, that we ſhall always endeavour to make ſuch Returns as may deſerve the Continuance of your Royal Favour and Protection, and as may become the moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects
to the beſt of Kings.

The Houſe of Commons have paſſed two very ne-ceſſary Bills, one intituled, An Act to prevent the Evil ſent to it according to Law. And another Bill is paſ-ſing for accepting the ſolemn Aſſirmation of the Qua-

Britain for two Months, upon their extraordinary Oc-caſions.

Snow is ſeveral Foot deep in Newry Mountains; ſo that there is no travelling for either Man or Horſe between Belfaſt and Antrim.
